D. Students – Describe general recruitment efforts and admission requirements. In accordance with the institution’s Uniform Recruitment and Retention Strategy, describe plans to recruit, retain, and graduate students from underrepresented groups for the program.

Students are recruited for the Certificate in Advertising in classes at the beginning of each semester; at Mays and TAMU open houses; at the Aggie Advertising Club meetings; one-on-one meetings with the student and sometimes with parents on campus. Some strategies to retain students in the program are to offer counseling by appointment and on request, and by involving all students in relevant advertising such as local and national professional and student conferences, guest lecturer visits, and field trips.

E. Library – Provide the library director’s assessment of library resources necessary for the program. Describe plans to build the library holdings to support the program.

The Texas A&M University Libraries, and its West Campus Library business facility, is well positioned to support a certification in Advertising. The Libraries hold over 3,000 titles in the library catalog relating to advertising. The Libraries have holdings of over 100 electronic and print periodicals that address various forms and aspects of both traditional and online advertising. Additionally, the West Campus Library provides access to 10 key marketing and advertising databases in the R.C. Barclay Reference and Retailing Resources Center, including the Advertising Red Books and AdSpender.

F. Facilities and Equipment – Describe the availability and adequacy of facilities and equipment to support the program. Describe plans for facility and equipment improvements/additions.

Existing Wehner classrooms and administrative offices will be used to support this program.

G. Accreditation – If the discipline has a national accrediting body, describe plans to obtain accreditation or provide a rationale for not pursuing accreditation.

Not Applicable for this Certificate

H. Evaluation – Describe the evaluation process that will be used to assess the quality and effectiveness of the new degree program.

Evaluations are done in the classroom based on assessment tools and out of the classroom by companies and supervisors for whom the students work during Internships. Participation in the Aggie Advertising Club is evaluated based on points they earn for involvement in the organization’s activities.

1. Report costs for new faculty hires, graduate assistants, and technical support personnel. For new faculty, prorate individual salaries as a percentage of the time assigned to the program. If existing faculty will contribute to program, include costs necessary to maintain existing programs (e.g., cost of adjunct to cover courses previously taught by faculty who would teach in new program).
2. Specify other costs here (e.g., administrative costs, travel).
3. Indicate formula funding for students new to the institution because of the program; formula funding should be included only for years three through five of the program and should reflect enrollment projections for years three through five.
4. Report other sources of funding here. In-hand grants, "likely" future grants, and designated tuition and fees can be included.
