

Covid-19 Delivery Modes

Any questions may be directed to 979-458-4950 or scheduling@tamu.edu

Code	Description (displays in Howdy)	Application
TR	Traditional Face-to-Face (F2F)	All meetings delivered in-person (no remote option). Faculty must accommodate students who are unable to attend due to illness and/or self-isolation as they would for other absences from class pre-COVID. In-class exams would also be face-to-face. Make clear that this only face to face. Only available if course is not required or if it is a multi-section course with at least one section offered with a remote option.
DUAL	F2F with Remote Option	All meetings can be attended in-person or remotely; student option on how to attend. Exams must be delivered remotely.
MIXED	Mixed, F2F and Remote Meetings	Some meetings are in-person and some are remote; can be entire meeting series (e.g., LEC, LAB, etc.) or alternating in-person/remote days within a meeting series. For the F2F component, students may be required to attend in-person with no remote option.
REM	Remote Only	All Meetings are delivered remotely online; if a meeting time is associated with the course, faculty and students will attend at a specific time (synchronous). If no time is listed, students do not have a scheduled meeting time during the week (asynchronous). Exams must be delivered remotely as well.
WEB	Web-based	All Meetings are delivered online; mode is limited to Distance Education sections designed for online formats.
