

How to View Holds/Blocks

Holds/Blocks will prevent you from registering. You should check to make sure you don't have any holds before your registration start date/time. Please check back regularly to see if any new holds are placed on your account.

1. Find the TAMU Preregistration and Holds channel. If you do not see a yellow box in the channel, then you have no holds and are cleared for registration.

Note: If you attend TAMU Galveston find the TAMUG Preregistration and Holds channel. If you attend TAMU Qatar find the TAMUQ Preregistration and Holds channel.

2. If you do see a yellow "IMPORTANT" box that reads "You have holds", you will NOT be able to register until you clear the hold. To view your holds, click View Holds in the yellow box.
3. Here, you will find a more detailed explanation about why you are being held from registration. Contact the department listed or your advisor to remove the hold before your registration start time.
